

Wishing-Well Productions as part of the 2007 Midsumma festival presents the Australian Premiere of

Her Aching Heart

By Briony Lavery

An historic lesbian romantic comedy

Directed by Sarah McCusker (NIDA)
Featuring Madeleine Swain and Ruth Katerelos
Musical Director - Ben Kiley
Design – Georgina Campbell and Hope Hayward-Rowling
Costumes – Melanie Liertz
Lighting Design – Alana Eaton
Fight choreographer – Felicity Steele
Sound design – Blake Stickland

Inspired by the writings of Daphne Du Maurier et al, Her Aching Heart is an historic romp of lesbian love and desire juxtaposed with a blossoming contemporary liaison.

The beautiful Lady Harriet Helstone, ardent and wilful, encounters the gentle yet determined, Molly Penhallow and discovers love; a push-pull of passion and desire ensues amidst a class difference and against all odds. Meanwhile, contemporary Harriet meets Molly... Include a votive nun, Granny, and a handful of other colourful characters; an exploration of gender and class, a comment or three on the nature of relationships, and set against a backdrop of contemporary songs and you have an entertaining and sexy theatre production. Wickedly funny! "Her Aching Heart" is UK playwright Briony Lavery's (Frozen) lesbian love story.

*Old Council Chambers, Trades Hall
54 Victoria Street, Carlton South*

WEDNESDAY, 24 JANUARY – SUNDAY, 11 FEBRUARY, 2007
WEDNESDAYS - SATURDAYS @ 8.00PM & SUNDAYS @ 6.30PM
Tickets $17/$22, $20 groups of ten or more.

Bookings @ wishingwellp@gmail.com.au or via phone or SMS 0404889613

